MEMORANDUM FOR THE SPECIAL GROUP (AUGMENTED)

From: Office, Chief of Operations

Subject: Progress, Operation Mongoose

Internal Situation. The team introduced into Oriente Province on 4-5 June reported that Cuban security measures made operations in that area difficult. An allegation of Raul Castro on June 25 concerning the destruction of a team in Oriente is being checked, but to date this report is not accepted as fact.

On 21-22 June a maritime operation to emplace a cache of arms and demolitions was accomplished without incident.

Defector. Roig, the commercial officer who defected from the Cuban Embassy in Mexico, has provided the names of other Cuban G-2 personnel abroad. This information was used to alert U.S. agencies in Canada, Uruguay, Brazil, Mexico and Chile. On 23 June, Roig appeared at a CRC sponsored press conference in Miami, which was attended by more than 40 press, radio, and TV representatives. VOA is giving full coverage to press conferences of Roig.

Propaganda Effort. The VOA and USIA press service continued coverage on the Cardenas incident involving government police suppression of food shortage demonstrators. The deteriorating economic situation, mismanagement, and the disadvantageous trade pattern with the Soviets have been publicized. Additional stories have been played on food, housing and transport shortages, and the Myth of the land distribution program.

26th of July Propaganda Theme. CIA stations in 14 countries were provided with propaganda guidance designed to exploit the theme of Castro's betrayal of the revolution, particularly in connection with the 26th of July Anniversary. The station chiefs were to coordinate actions with local State [REDACTED]
